

Curl around the ant's head and down its body.

Down the branch, half way up and curl around the beehive.

Curl around the cat.

Curl around the dragonfly's wings, up to its head and down to its tail.

Curl around the elephant's ear and down its trunk.

Curl down the flamingo's long body. Cross over its wings.

Curl around the gorilla's body, down and round his arm.

Down the hay bales, half way up, over and down the hill.

Down the iguana's short body and curl its tail. Dot the leaf.

Down the jackdaw's long body and curl its tail. Dot the berry.

Down to the koala's toes, half way up, curl around its head and straight out to its toes.

Down the ladders and curl.

Down the mole, up, over and down the mound... up, over and down the mound.

Down to its tail, up, over and down to the newt's nose.

Curl all around the otter.

Down to its feet, all the way up and curl around the penguin's face.

Curl around the quail's body, down and flick at the tail.

Down the rain, up and over the rainbow.

Curl and squiggle down the squirrel's tail.

Down the treehouse and curl the ladders. Cross the branches.

Down the underground, up to the umbrella and back down underground.

Down the vine and up the vine.

Down the wave, up, down and up again.

Down the fox's tail to its front paw. Down its nose to its hind paw.

Down the yo-yo's string, curl up and back down to the yo-yo.

Across the zap, down the zap and across the zap again.